

Protecting your privacy is important to us. This document outlines The Sports Buffet's Privacy Policy. It explains exactly what information we gather, how that information is protected, and how we use that information to provide you with the best possible user experience.

Information We Collect

Cookies. When you visit our website we use cookies to help with navigation. No personal information or technical information is gathered. Our cookies are non-persistent, which means they disappear when you close your browser. Our cookies are not stored on your computer's hard drive, they are stored in memory and lost when you close your browser or navigate away from our website. Our website tracks your choices as you navigate through the pages. Using cookies allows us to maintain your choices and provide a better Web experience for you.

Analytics Information. We use analytics software to track how visitors use our website. No personal information is collected. We may collect information about your computer system (i.e. your IP address, your operating system and monitor size, or the browser you are using). We log the date and time of your visit, how long you stayed on our website, and other such statistical data. This information is important because it tells use where visitors come from and the type of content you are looking to utilize on our website. Analytic data allows us to better understand what you are looking for so we know how to respond to your needs.

Personal Information. When you enter personal information on our website, we may collect the following information:

- Full Name
- Shipping Address
- Billing Address

- Telephone Number (Cell, Home, and/or Business)
- Email Address
- Credit Card Information
- Sports Preferences, Scores, Players, etc.

How We Use Your Personal Information. Your personal information is stored so we have a record of your transaction. Your credit card information is only kept long enough to complete your transaction. We do not permanently store any credit card information.

Information Access & Security

Company Access to Personal Information. It is The Sports Buffet's company policy to only access your personal information to send you content based on your profile choices. If access to your personal information is required (as in retrieving a password or user name) we will only access this information after receiving a written request from you to do so. We maintain this policy to protect your privacy. Even though your data is in our database, we consider it yours. This policy underscores our commitment to the security of your personal information.

Data Security. We will only share your personal contact information with a third party if required to do so by law, as in the case of a court subpoena. Your personal contact information is not shared with any other entity except in this circumstance. No sensitive data, such as a social security number, is requested or needed to use our site. Please alert The Sports Buffet and the authorities immediately if a person, posing as a The Sports Buffet representative, contacts you requesting sensitive information like your social security number, bank account number, credit card number, or any other information or data you believe would put your identity at risk.

Contacting Us

How to Contact Us. If you have questions regarding any part of this privacy policy, there are a number of ways you can contact The Sports Buffet. First, use the Contact Form on our website's homepage. You may also contact us at info@thesportsbuffet.com.

Changes to This Policy

Changes to this Policy. The Sports Buffet reserves the right to make adjustments to this privacy policy as part of its commitment to meeting our customers' needs and ensuring your online safety when utilizing our website. Any changes to the policy will take effect 14 days after we post the policy change on our website and notify our users by email as to the upcoming change. This gives you, the user, time to review the change. We need to be able to update our policies, as United States Federal laws, Colorado State laws, County regulations, and specific town codes and laws change and as Internet use requires. It may be that certain elements of our policy become illegal or unenforceable in the future, therefore, we reserve the right to be able to change, update, alter or amend our policies to comply with applicable laws.

All copyrights and intellectual property rights on and relating to this website are the property of The Sports Buffet and its various providers and any use of these photographs, materials, platforms, devices, software, or tools is strictly prohibited.